

She stated there was a major change in Harrisburg, John Vogel, the Bureau Director has retired and his position is vacant. The labor market information she provides will soon be on the website. The new website is being improved every day.

Guest Speaker – Enterprise Rental

They can offer corporate accounts for the group without a charge. There would not be any blackout dates & they have set rates. They can offer discounts and a link to their website, contact them for information.

Guest Speaker - PennTap

They have a manufacturing bulletin board. The cost is $10 per month. The bulletin board is used to promote manufacturing and provides opportunities within the manufacturing community. A question was raised as to whether the name could be changed to encourage more people to join. The use of Westmoreland name would lead people to believe it's exclusively for that area. He mentioned it could be discussed with the person in charge. Joe Polk gave a presentation on what the program consists of and details on membership. If anyone is interested, contact Joe Polk.

Video Library

We now have a list of what is requested in training videos for the group, now we can begin our search. The price for 11 DVD's is $1800. There is potential that someone will donate the funds to purchase the videos.

Workforce Forum

There was a grant submitted for funds to bring in Ed Barlow. He will give a presentation and interact with those in attendance and educators. It will be a breakfast meeting.

Video Project

The script is almost finalized then it will be discussed with each company.

Other Business

Vickie & David met with the representatives for the Chamber Choice Health Plans. If it is something that the members are interested in it would be a two year project. If someone would like to volunteer to help with the project, let Vickie know.

Joe Goldcamp mentioned that Natures Blend, through IUP has 4 students working with them. They also are receiving three hour leadership training.

Vickie said that the future meetings will begin with member updates. She would like the meetings to showcase different members each month. It will be discussed at the December member's only meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:55 am. The next meeting will be December 6th. It will be only for members and will be held at the AET Office.